Selena Gomez's Shoe

I am Selena Gomez's shoe. I'm the perfect pair of shoes for a famous girl. Let me tell you about myself, I am hot pink Nike shoes and I have black shoe lace and now I will tell you some of the adventures Selena and I have taken.

The first place we went to was a very nice restaurant named Zaxbys, but when we walked in there was an unpleasant sight up ahead. "Look out Selena don't go that way" I screamed!!! Kaploomp!! There I go a hot pair of tennis shoes ruined!! Poor Selena was just like me. I lost my grip to the ground. It was slick!

as a ice rink.

The next day we went jogging. Selena and I were clean. Anyway, we started from her two story house out onto the side walk. It was slightly bumpy. Then we began running like a rocket! If I had a head it would be bobbing up and down. It was a bumpy surface. The friction between us was crazy.

Finally, tonight came. It was Selena's night to walk the red carpet. The place was packed with people. When we got out the limo we started to walk. We were doing fine but the red carpet began to slow us down. It was a ticklish feeling. No one seem to notice.

Anyway, we ate a fantastic diner its amazing how much food people drop, And we end the night by dancing.
